Paying your plan premium

You can pay your monthly plan premium, including any late enrollment penalty that you may currently have or may owe by mail or Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) each month. You can also choose to pay your premium by automatic deduction from your Social Security or Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) benefit check each month.

If you don't select a payment option, you will get a bill each month.

Please select a premium payment option

❑ Get a monthly bill

❑ Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) from your bank account. This will occur between the 15th and 20th of each month and is the same date for all members. Please enclose a VOIDED check or provide the following:

Account holder name: _____

Bank routing number: __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ Bank account number: __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __

❑ Automatic deduction from your monthly Social Security or Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) benefit check. (The Social Security/RRB deduction may take two or more months to begin after Social Security/RRB approves the deduction. You may receive an invoice for these first few months before the withholding begins. If Social Security or RRB does not approve your request for automatic deduction, we will send you a letter and paper bills for your monthly premiums.)

If you are assessed a Part D-Income Related Monthly Adjustment Amount (D-IRMAA), you will be notified by the Social Security Administration. You will either have the amount withheld from your Social Security benefit check or be billed directly by Medicare or RRB. DO NOT pay Providence Medicare Advantage Plans the Part D-IRMAA

People with limited incomes may qualify for extra help to pay for their prescription drug costs. If eligible, Medicare could pay for 75 percent or more of your drug costs including monthly prescription drug premiums, annual deductibles, and co-insurance.

Additionally, those who qualify will not be subject to the coverage gap or a late enrollment penalty. Many people are eligible for these savings and don't even know it. For more information about this extra help, contact your local Social Security office, or call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213. TTY users should call 1-800-325-0778.

You can also apply for extra help online at www.socialsecurity.gov/prescriptionhelp.

If you qualify for extra help with your Medicare prescription drug coverage costs, Medicare will pay all or part of your plan premium. If Medicare pays only a portion of this premium, we will bill you for the amount that Medicare doesn't cover.

Authorization and declaration

Release of information: By joining this Medicare health plan, I acknowledge that Providence Medicare Advantage Plans will release my information to Medicare and other plans as is necessary for treatment, payment and health care operations. I also acknowledge that Providence Medicare Advantage Plans will release my information including my prescription drug event data if I am on a prescription drug plan to Medicare, who may release it for research and other purposes which follow all applicable Federal statutes and regulations. The information on this enrollment form is correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if I intentionally provide false information on this form, I will be disenrolled from the plan.

I understand that my signature (or the signature of the person authorized to act on my behalf under the laws of the State where I live) on this application means that I have read and understand the contents of this application. Please read and sign below:

By completing this enrollment application, I agree to the following:

Providence Medicare Advantage Plans is a Medicare Advantage plan and has a contract with the Federal government. I will need to keep my Medicare Parts A and B. I can be in only one Medicare Advantage plan at a time, and I understand that my enrollment in this plan will automatically end my enrollment in another Medicare health plan or prescription drug plan. It is my responsibility to inform you of any prescription drug coverage that I have or may get in the future. I understand that if I don't have Medicare prescription drug coverage, or a creditable prescription drug coverage plan (as good as Medicare's), I may have to pay a late enrollment penalty if I enroll in Medicare prescription drug coverage in the future. Enrollment in this plan is generally for the entire year. Once I enroll, I may leave this plan or make changes only at certain times of the year, when an enrollment period is available (Example: October 15 – December 7 of every year), or under certain special circumstances.

Providence Medicare Advantage Plans serves a specific service area. If I move out of the area that Providence Medicare Advantage Plans serves, I need to notify the plan so I can disenroll and find a new plan in my new area. Once I am a member of Providence Medicare Advantage Plans, I have the right to appeal plan decisions about payment or services if I disagree.

I will read the Evidence of Coverage from Providence Medicare Advantage Plans when I get it to know which rules I must follow to get coverage with this Medicare Advantage plan. I understand that people with Medicare aren't usually covered under Medicare while out of the country except for limited coverage near the U.S. border.

I understand that selecting a Providence Medicare (HMO) plan means that on the date coverage begins, I must get all of my health care from Providence Medicare Advantage Network Providers, except for emergency or urgently needed services or out-of-area dialysis services. I understand that selecting a Providence Medicare HMO-POS plan means that with some exceptions, I may get non-urgent or non-emergent health care from providers outside of the Providence Medicare Advantage Network at a higher cost-sharing should I choose.

Services authorized by Providence Medicare Advantage Plans and other services contained in my Providence Medicare Advantage Plans Evidence of Coverage document (also known as a member contract or subscriber agreement) will be covered provided plan rules are followed. If plan rules are not followed, NEITHER MEDICARE NOR PROVIDENCE MEDICARE ADVANTAGE PLANS WILL PAY FOR THE SERVICES.

I understand that if I am getting assistance from a sales agent, broker, or other individual employed by or contracted with Providence Medicare Advantage Plans, he/she may be paid based on my enrollment in Providence Medicare Advantage Plans.
